

THE BARBARY

CHRISTMAS AND PRIVATE DINING

THE BARBARY X JACOB THE ANGEL

Throughout December, The Barbary will be offering private dining for groups of up to 18 people for the very first time. We will be transforming Jacob the Angel next door from cosy coffee house into a warmly lit dining room, serving a specially designed Barbary feasting menu. Those familiar with the Supper Clubs will already know how charming these evenings are.

Our head chef Daniel Alt has put together a selection of dishes perfect for sharing, featuring Barbary favourites as well as specials created for the festive season. For drinks, our full wine & beer menu will be available for pre-order by the bottle, as well as our aged Negronis for those looking to start their night with something a little stiffer.

Swapping cakes for mezze dips and Jerusalem bagels, coffee for wine and liquor; our private space will be available for groups looking to get together with friends or colleagues over some good food throughout the festive period.

The Barbary at Jacob the Angel will be available for private bookings from December 1st to 23rd. For more details and enquiries, please email hello@jacobtheangel.co.uk
