

THE BARBARY

NEW YEAR'S EVE AT THE BARBARY...

As has become our New Year's Eve tradition, The Barbary will be taking bookings for parties of up to four people from 5.30pm through to 11pm, serving a regular menu with plenty of specials. To reserve your seats, please email newyearseve@thebarbary.co.uk with your preferred time and any dietary requirements, and we will get back to you shortly.

AND MORE!

To add to the New Year's Eve offering this year, The Barbary will be teaming up with next door neighbour Jacob the Angel to bring you an intimate supper club style feasting menu specially designed by Barbary head chef Daniel Alt. If you would like the chance to fully book the space for fourteen people privately, please email newyearseve@thebarbary.co.uk before Wednesday 12th December, when we will open the space up as a communal table.

Tickets are £60 per person available at either 6pm or 9.30pm.
